About Gwennetta

Gwennetta Wright is a seasoned entrepreneur and celebrated author. An award-winning business woman, Wright's ability to reflect a passion for service in order to reach success has become a flagship component to her brand as a tax professional, business strategist, realtor and media spokesperson. Known for her ability to project manage multiple and complicated professional endeavors, she utilizes her resources and talents to empower others and provide accurate and sound advice to other businesses.

Gwennetta, herself, owns Xpert Tax Service LLC, Gwennetta Wright Enterprises and she is the CEO of Reach 4 Your Dream Inc. Further, she is also a realtor with Prestige Property Broker and host of her own talk show Gwen's Business Corner on Fox 54.

While work is important, Gwennetta has a vested interest in helping others polish their efforts by acting as a philanthropist and community-based liaison and mentor. Her strong reputation within the business world and involvement within the Georgia community compliment her tireless passion for service. She has helped lay the foundation for a variety of small businesses, as well as dedicating her time and attention to various issues for at-risk youth.

Her professional ambition and accomplishments are embedded alongside her religious views, which help others discover not only how the Lord's lessons in life can turn into one's biggest blessings, but also how serving others helps both community and businesses grow.
